

EUROPE REGIONAL FUTURES FORUM

WE NEED TO HEAR YOUR VOICE!

COALITION for the UN WE NEED

WHAT IS C4UN?

UN Secretary-General António Guterres has made proposals to reform the United Nations through his "Our Common Agenda" (OCA). The UN Summit of the Future (SOTF), scheduled for September 2024, is a critical milestone in this process. The Coalition for the UN We Need (C4UN) provides an open forum for civil society to organize itself and interact with the United Nations and its member states to promote the renewal and strengthening of the United Nations system.

WHAT IS A REGIONAL FUTURES FORUM?

C4UN partners and global civil society are organizing a series of Regional Futures Forums (RFFs) to bring critical and diverse intergenerational civil society perspectives into preparations for the first annual civil society-led Global Futures Forum (GFF) scheduled for 20-21 March 2023 in New York, to ensure that diverse perspectives for the SOFT.

WHY DO WE NEED YOU?

A key outcome of the GFF will be the development of a proposed “People’s Pact for the Future”. Join us online at Regional Futures Forum and contribute to the People’s Pact through seven thematic discussions.

13 MARCH

11:00 AM CET

REGISTER NOW

THEMATIC DISCUSSIONS

- Global Economic & Financial Architecture
- Human Rights & Participation
- Development
- Global Digital Compact
- Environmental Governance
- Peace & Security
- UN & Global Governance Innovation